

BOHRMICH IS ASHAMED OF HIS GERMAN BIRTH

The Democratic Candidate for Governor of Wisconsin
Blames His Parents Because He Was Not
Born in the United States.

ADDS TO THIS AN INSULT TO THE JEWS

His Sentiments as Expressed Openly in Terre Haute, Ind., in 1894, and Admitted by Him in Writing—Witnesses Give all the Facts.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 6.—"I was born in Germany, and I blame my father and mother for it. I am ashamed of it. To be a Jew."

This was the sentiment with which Louis G. Bohrmich, the present democratic candidate for governor of Wisconsin, startled a crowd of German-Americans in the Delmonico restaurant here on June 14, 1894, and he followed it with an insult to the Jewish race.

He repeated the same statement about Germany on Dec. 7, 1894, and was ordered out of the restaurant for doing so. On Dec. 10 of the same year he wrote a letter to Herman Mewes, the proprietor of the restaurant, saying he was sorry that his statement of his belief caused him any trouble, but at the same time he could not help believing as he did.

Witnesses to the Statement.

These were his convictions, and he was sorry they gave offense. He begged pardon and expressed the hope that, notwithstanding he believed as he did, his present personal relations with Mr. Mewes would not be disturbed.

The statement was made about 6 o'clock in the evening, and there were sitting around the table at the time Herman Mewes, the proprietor of the restaurant; Herman Raabe, bookkeeper of the First National Bank; Theodore Markel, bookkeeper of McKean's Bank; Colonel George Edward Pugh, ex-City Attorney; Louis Finkbinder, at that time a hardware merchant, now retired;

William Peaker, now dead; Carl Krausle, now of New York; Abe Reimold, who was entertaining Mr. Bohrmich, but who is now in Worcester, Mass.; Otto Rosenberg, now dead; and W. T. Beauchamp, a liveryman. Aaron Goldberg was not at the table, but he heard the remark.

Struck By Man He Insulted.

The statement came so unexpectedly that all present were all excited in a moment. Mr. Mewes remonstrated with Mr. Bohrmich for casting such a reflection upon his parents and upon his native country. An argument followed and the party arose from the table, going to the front of the place, where Mr. Bohrmich repeated the statement and where he also made the remark, as Mr. Goldberg came forward toward the crowd, that "he could always tell a Dutchman and a Jew, they looked so much like a hog."

For this latter statement Mr. Goldberg hit Mr. Bohrmich on the nose, drawing blood, and was only prevented from inflicting more punishment because the others interfered.

This is in substance the story which is told by the witness of the affair. Mr. Bohrmich was at the time in the employ of the Pettit Malt company of Kenosha, and one of his customers was the Terre Haute Brewing company. He was here to get an order for malt, and through Mr. Reimold and Mr. Peaker of the brewery got to be well known.

HARRY VARDON IS GOLF CHAMPION

DEFEATS J. H. TAYLOR ON THE WHEATON LINKS.

Best Golf Ever Seen in the United States—Great Gallery Follows the Two Experts. From Abroad—Gets Fifth Place in the Contest, Sixteen Strokes Behind Vardon.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Vardon won the open golf championship by two strokes from Taylor, his nearest competitor. In the final day's play on the Chicago club links at Wheaton yesterday the two great English golfers, bitter rivals for first honors abroad, played one of the most remarkable contests on record.

After playing seventy-two holes the scores of these two leading contestants differed by only half as many strokes as a novice would require to get out of a bunker.

Bell Leads the Americans.

David Bell of the Midlothian club leads the American golfers, a few strokes ahead of Lawrence Auchterlonie of Glenview, and Will Smith, the former champion.

The contest was at all times between the two Britishers, with a struggle among the Americans for third position. By their play the foreigners established themselves in a class above any one in this country. But between the two leaders there was little to choose. Vardon, the favorite, won out, but he did it by such a small margin as to leave doubts in the minds of some whether he is superior to Taylor or not.

Uphill Efforts of Taylor.

Champion Taylor contested for the honor to the bitter end. When he seemed hopelessly beaten he played his best golf, and, with better luck on the greens, might have reduced Vardon's lead to nil. As it was, he made the finish one of the most exciting and interesting in the history of the game in this country.

Attracted by the presence of the best golfers in the world, a crowd of unusual proportions journeyed to the links to watch the play. It is estimated that fully 2,000 persons tramped over the course in the hot sun to get a glimpse of the game as played by its greatest exponents.

Enthusiasts of All Grades.

There were enthusiasts from all grades of society, from the millionaire club member to caddies on the public links. All were made welcome by the club and spent a profitable day studying the fine points of driving, putting and approaching.

Society graced the occasion, but did not attempt the display which accompanies an amateur contest. It was strictly a professional event, in which the interest was not so much in the players as in the playing.

BRAVERY OF THE MARINES.

American Missionaries Pass Resolutions of Appreciation.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 6.—Gen. Howard, commandant of the marines, has received from Col. Biddle, in charge of the marines in China, a set of resolutions passed by American missionaries and members of the American legation at Peking expressing their hearty appreciation of the courage, fidelity and patriotism of the American marines who so bravely and tenaciously held the key to our salvation during the whole of the trying time.

SELECT THE NEW MINISTER TO ITALY

George von Lehr Meyer of Massachusetts Chosen as Draper's Successor at Rome.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The new American ambassador to Rome has been selected. His name is George von Lehr Meyer, and he is a Massachusetts man of fine character.

That he is a man of wealth, goes without saying; none other could afford to take the Italian mission. It is estimated that our ambassador to Rome must spend about $30,000 a year over and above his salary.

Mr. Draper of Massachusetts tried it for a couple of years and grew tired of paying such a handsome price for the privilege of serving his country. Ex-Governor Wolcott was offered the place, and he concluded he could get into as much high society as he cared for by a cheaper route. Senators Hoar and Lodge have searched Massachusetts over for a man willing to take the honor and pay the bills, and Mr. Meyer is the man. He is expected to make a creditable ambassador.

MCKINLEY READY TO RETURN.

NEGROES ARE WARNED

An Address Stating That Imperialism Will Endanger the Liberty of the Colored Race.

Boston, Oct. 6.—Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson, William Lloyd Garrison and ex-Gov. George S. Boutwell, all of Boston, have united in an address to the colored people of the United States. This address was given out for publication yesterday by the national democratic committee. The three men whose names are subscribed to the address are well known to the negroes of the country. They urge the colored voters to turn their backs on the republican party, because, they say, the national policy of imperialism is full of danger to the colored race.

BELOIT RUNS UP A BIG SCORE.

Ripon College Is Defeated by Hollister's Men 78 to 0.

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 6.—Beloit defeated Ripon, Wis., in a game of football yesterday by a score of 78 to 0. The visiting college men were literally overwhelmed by Beloit's strong eleven. Merrill caught the ball from a kick-off, made his own interference and ran ninety yards for a touchdown. Beloit plays its annual game with the University of Wisconsin Saturday of next week at Milwaukee. It will be a great game.

BUSINESS MEN CLEAN STREETS.

Kenosha Residents Move City Officers With an Object Lesson.

Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 6.—Grave business men, armed with broom and shovel, started a crusade for cleanliness by removing the dirt from Main street today, piling it in heaps and labeling them with placards uncomplimentary to the city officers. The latter took the hint and had the piles hauled away.

REMARKABLE INCREASE IN THE BUSINESS OF WISCONSIN BANKS

Loans, Cash on Hand and Deposits Are at Present
Greater by Many Millions Than in 1896—
Shows That the State is Prosperous.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 6.—A compilation of the official reports of the state and private banks of Wisconsin by Bank Examiner E. J. Kidd, in response to a call recently made, shows that the business of these institutions is keeping pace with the general prosperity in other lines. Mr. Kidd says:

"Since the enactment of the amendment to the national banking law five state banks have been reorganized as national banks, which decreased the aggregate deposits $3,000,000, with a proportionate decrease in the amount of loans and discounts and cash; yet during the period named the increase in loans and discounts has been 62 per cent, in cash 78 per cent, and in deposits 90 per cent; while the average rate of interest has decreased fully 2 per cent.

CATHOLICS RESENT METHODIST ATTACK

AN INCIDENT OF THE CONFERENCE AT APPLETON.

Report of the Board of Trustees Shows the Conference To Be in Good Financial Condition—Obligation to Support Church Papers—Bishop Endorses Old Fashioned Methodism.

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 6.—A statement made by Dr. McDowell of Chicago before the Methodist conference last night, that "the Catholic church educates in ignorance, the Protestant out of ignorance," has caused a good deal of comment. Father Fitzmaurice of St. Mary's parish, in an open letter, challenges the declaration and calls upon Dr. McDowell for proof or apology. No attention has been paid by Dr. McDowell to the letter.

Report of Conference Trustees.

Dr. Henry Coleman, secretary of the Board of Conference Trustees, read the report. It showed cash on hand, $465.79; total assets, including real estate, $34,745.87. On motion of Dr. Coleman $1,053.70 was voted into the conference claimant's fund. Dr. Coleman also reported S. A. Falks of Waukesha as elected a new trustee.

The Rev. T. B. Neely, LL. D., of New York, secretary of the Sunday School Union and Tract society, made an address severely scoring the members of the conference for allowing subscriptions by their Sunday schools to other than official Methodist periodicals. Dr. Neely deplored the fact that in this state much more interest was taken in an inter-denominational Sunday School union than in the Methodist union. He stated that Methodism had suffered a terrible loss because of this fact.

Old Fashioned Methodists.

The conference session was largely occupied by the action taken upon the reports of examination on students in the ministry. Bishop Malleau made their reception the occasion of a lengthy speech in which he urged them to become old-fashioned Wesleyan Methodists who feared neither man nor the devil.

Change in Janesville.

One of the four presiding elders of the Milwaukee district said this morning that changes in Milwaukee will necessitate changes in Racine, Kenosha, Whitefish, Waukesha, Beloit and the Court Street church at Janesville. An endeavor is being made to send to the Milwaukee district a number of ministers from the Appleton district.

SINGAN WILL BE CHINA'S CAPITAL

Celestial Emperor Has Decided Not To Return to Peking.

EDICT TO THAT EFFECT

Orders Given To Select a Suitable Site for an Imperial Palace.

SEAT OF ANCIENT RULERS

Washington, Oct. 6.—The emperor has decided to establish his capital at Singan Fu, indicates his determination not to return to Peking. This appears to be proved by an order issued by the State department today: "The Japanese minister has left with the secretary of state a copy of a telegram dated Oct. 1, received from the Japanese minister of foreign affairs to this effect: "The Japanese acting consul general at Shanghai reported on Sept. 23 for publication in the Chinese papers an undated imperial edict the purport of which is as follows: "Though we have accompanied the Empress Dowager to Tai-Yuen and settled there it is not our intention to remain there permanently. Inasmuch as Chang-An was the seat of the ancient rulers of China and is defended by nature, we order the acting Governor of Shan Si to select a suitable site for an imperial palace in the city of Singan and provide everything necessary for our journey thereto."

ENDEAVOR REPORTS SHOW FALLING OFF

LARGE LOSSES IN MEMBERSHIP IN STATE BRANCHES.

Over $3,000 Given for Missions During the Year—Money Raised for India Sufferers—Large Attendance at the Convention—Notable Addresses by Distinguished Speakers.

Racine, Wis., Oct. 6.—This morning President A. C. Kempton called the convention to order, and introduced the Rev. B. B. Bigler of Madison, who delivered an address on "Christianity, a Challenge to Reason." This evening at the Auditorium, William B. Shaw, treasurer of the United Society of Christian Endeavorers of Boston, will deliver an address on "Advance Endeavor."

Last evening, W. A. Holt of Oconto, treasurer, submitted his report, showing that the expenses for the year had been $440 and that on Oct. 5, 1900, there was $67.30 on hand.

Loss in Membership.

Fannie R. Jackson of Janesville, secretary made a report. The report shows that one year ago there was 507 societies enrolled, while at present there are 490, a net decrease of 17, which is not quite so bad as last year's decrease of 30. This decrease is due to the fact that 20 societies have disbanded, at some time or another, organized which makes the net loss 17. The membership is about 18,130 against 18,500 last year.

Sum Given for Missions.

Miss Caroline Fairchild of Green Bay, superintendent of missionary work, reported that the total sum given for missionary work was $3,171.32. The amount given to India sufferers was $470.

Reports were made by the Correspondence, Transportation and other committees and President Kempton also submitted a report, reviewing the work of the year and spoke in a commendable manner of the conduct of the organization.

YOUTSEY DEFENSE ASKS FOR NEW TRIAL

Judge Cantrell Orders the Trial to Proceed—The State Was Ready to Go On.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 6.—When the Yontsey case was called this morning in the Circuit Court the list of witnesses that the sheriff of Breathitt county had failed to summon was called, but none answered, though the returns showed that all had been summoned since Wednesday. Mr. Crawford reported that the sheriff of Knox county had made no response at all to the rule and said the defendant wished to await a response. Judge Cantrell said the defense had been given ample time to prepare for trial and must now proceed if the commonwealth was ready.

The commonwealth insisted on trial and the judge ordered the regular panel of jurors to be called. Colonel Nelson moved to discharge the defendant because the indictment filed in this county was only a copy. Overruled. A motion for postponement was then filed and overruled.

MAC VEAGH IS FOR MCKINLEY.

Tells Why He Cannot Support the Democratic Nominees.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 6.—Wayne MacVeagh, attorney-general in President Arthur's cabinet, and ambassador to Italy during President Cleveland's last term, announced today that he would support McKinley and Roosevelt.

"The controlling reason," said Mr. MacVeagh, "is the unwillingness I feel to trust the government of the country to the men who now represent and control the democratic organization, standing as they do upon the Chicago platform of 1896."

LINCOLN ELECTOR DYING IN CHICAGO

John Olney, Last of the Electors Chosen by Popular Vote—He Was Honored by Grant.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—John Olney, the last of the electors chosen by popular vote of the state of Illinois to vote for Lincoln in 1860, is dying at the home of his son, John Olney, Jr., 223 Oakwood Boulevard. He was stricken with paralysis Wednesday afternoon as he was leaving his law office, 519 Chamber of Commerce, and his age, which is nearly 79, hindered his recovery.

For many years John Olney lived at Shawneetown, in the southern part of the state. During the war he served as lieutenant-colonel of the Sixth Illinois cavalry, and for two years following the ending of the rebellion he was a judge upon the bench of the Cairo circuit. Under President Grant he was supervisor of internal revenue. He came to Chicago upon the expiration of his term as judge and has been a leading member of the local bar for thirty-two years.

Republican rally has been arranged. The Senator, after the Southern tour which he will make under the auspices of the Republican National committee, will return to Wisconsin, Oct. 25, and put in the remainder of his time in the interests of the state campaign. Effort to Secure Hanna.

"I shall visit Chicago to confer with the managers of the National committee Speakers' bureau next Tuesday," said Mr. Bryant, "and I hope to secure several speakers of note. I should like to arrange a meeting at the Exposition building for Senator Hanna."

GIVE MISS ROLSTON A WARM RECEPTION

LARGE AND BRILLIANT AUDIENCE HEARD HER SING.

Frequent and Enthusiastic Encores Accorded the Sweet-Voiced Vocalist—The Whole Program Was a Rare Treat—Readings by Mrs. Day and Music by School for Blind Orchestra

Court Street M. E. church was filled to its utmost capacity last evening by an audience that had gathered to pay tribute to the charms of Miss Belle Rolston. It was a magnificent reception, and showed to Miss Rolston that during her absence she had lost none of the love Janesville people have for her.

The concert was a remarkably fine one, Miss Rolston occupying the first place among the attractions in the hearts of the audience, although the rest of the program was very fine.

The program was opened and closed by the orchestra from the School for the Blind, and although they have been playing together but a short time, the pieces were exquisitely rendered.

The second number was a trombone solo by Chester Parish, which was loudly applauded. Herbert W. Adams then played a violin solo in a way that showed him to be master of the violin.

Miss Rolston's appearance was greeted with a storm of applause, which was repeated whenever she appeared or left the stage. Her voice still retains that old, sweet charm that has captivated Janesville audiences before, and her study abroad has cultivated her voice until it is full of the melody of nature's songsters. Her program last night was more cultivated than any ever attempted by her in this city. The audience appreciated every thing attempted by her and was particularly pleased with the last selection, "I Cannot Help Loving Thee," which was like a message to her friends in her girlhood home. Miss Rolston was recalled until her encores were exhausted. She was the recipient of some beautiful flowers from her admirers. The accompaniments were played by Miss Pond.

The program was enhanced by Mrs. Day whose readings are always a treat to her audiences. She recited Robert Bulwer Lytton's, "At the Opera," exquisitely and gave a sketch from Mr. Dooley as an encore. Her second selection was a negro dialect story "Moriah's Mourning." Mrs. Day, was at her best and was thoroughly appreciated by her audience. She declined to respond to the second encore.

George Lange played an exquisite flute solo and was applauded until he again appeared. The program closed by the singing of "America" by the audience led by Miss Rolston. Many lingered after the concert and Miss Rolston held a sort of informal reception, many of her friends being anxious to greet her personally. She is very much improved by her European trip and is the same handsome woman that formerly called Janesville home.

The concert was given under the auspices of the music committee of the Court Street church. Young ladies who officiated as ushers were Nina Hall, Iva Poorman, Edith Loomis, Myrtle Dewey, Belle Strasser, Juliette Bostwick, Fannie Bennett and Anna Stevens.

TRIP TO CHINATOWN HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Hoyt's Most Celebrated Comedy Should Draw Large Audiences At the Myers' Grand.

For next Monday evening Manager P. L. Myers offers the local theater going public Hoyt's celebrated comedy "A Trip to Chinatown." The sale of seats opened this morning there being a good demand.

Hoyt's works are all clever and the public revel in them. They are full of keen but kindly satire on the fads of the day, sparkling with wit and altogether possessing those qualities that are sure to amuse the people and put an audience in a happy frame of mind. They are built to amuse and to draw money to the box office and in both respects they succeed emphatically.

In this season's extravagant revival of his famous "A Trip to Chinatown" it is said that he has eclipsed in brilliant humor and funny situations all previous efforts. "A Trip to Chinatown" will be seen at the Myers Grand next Monday evening with a cast reported as being the very best ever organized, headed by Harry Gilfoil, who has created more Hoytian characters than any other living comedian.

EDGERTON PROUD OF ROYAL J. MALTPRESS

WILL GIVE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET LOYAL SUPPORT

Appreciates the Honor of Getting First Place on the County Ticket.—The Nominee is Fitted by Experience and Physically, for the Important Office of Sheriff.

It is just 43 years since Edgerton was given a place upon the republican county ticket, the dominant party of the county. This fall our claims were recognized in the convention and Royal J. Maltress was named as the party candidate for the office of sheriff. While it was generally conceded that the favor was due this section of the county on the score of equitable division of patronage, it is no less a matter of a good and of just pride and satisfaction. The republicans in this corner of the county propose to show their appreciation of the honor by giving the ticket a loyal support at the coming election and a home endorsement of their candidate that will be flattering alike to Mr. Maltress and the party.

Royal J. Maltress was born in Utica, N. Y., Oct. 23, 1853, being the eldest son of 14 children born to John and Sarah Maltress, who emigrated the time constable as well, both of which offices are in line of training for the higher position of sheriff. He is a man of good address, fine physique, nearly six feet tall and weighs 190 pounds, all of which qualities are requisites of the office. In this connection we publish a portrait that will introduce our readers to the next sheriff of Rock county.—Edgerton Reporter.

Notice.

For the accommodation of those who are unable to call at my office during office hours to pay taxes, I will until October 20 be at the office Wednesday and Saturday evenings, from 7 to 8 o'clock.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

"I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. N. Fisher, 1361 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles, and then stopped for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand pounds of comfort, for I am a new woman once more and your advice and your 'Favorite Prescription' is the cause of it, coupled with the 'Pleasant Pellets' which are not to be dispensed with. I took eight bottles of the 'Prescription' the last time, making fourteen in all, and will not take any more unless you so advise, for I do not see as I need it."

WAGES RAISED 10 PER CENT

By Part of the Anthracite Coal Operators.

THE END IS NOW DEEMED NEAR

Independent Operators Begin to Join Move for Settlement with Workers—Offer Follows Secret Meeting—Mob and Deputies Clash.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 6.—The Independent Coal Operators' association of the Wyoming Valley and the Pardee companies of Hazleton have decided to grant their striking employees an advance of 10 per cent in wages. By this action the chief obstacle in the way of a compromise in part is removed. Hitherto the independent operators have refused to consider any concessions, declaring such a move was impossible till tonnage rates were reduced. It is reported here also that the coal railways had decided on such a reduction. One of the largest individual operators in the Hazleton region said, however, that he had not heard of such a plan. John Markie, the strikers' most determined opponent, has gone to New York. He refused to say whether he would follow the example of the other independent mine-owners.

Another rumor is current here, which, if true, would go far toward making the strikers' cause victorious. It is that if the railways continue to haul non-union coal to the seaboard the Brotherhood of Railway Men will call a strike on all the offending lines. This would effectively tie up the anthracite region, something the strikers have not succeeded in doing.

Offer Follows Secret Meeting. The independents' offer of an advance was announced after a secret meeting of coal operators at the office of A. Pardee & Co. The notice posted at all their collieries reads:

"This company makes the following announcement to its employees: It will adjust its rates of wages so as to pay to its mine employees on and after Oct. 1, and until further notice, a net increase of 10 per cent on the wages heretofore received.

"Note—It is understood in the foregoing that powder will be sold to miners for $1.50 per keg, and that the difference between this rate and the old rate of $1.75 shall be taken into account in figuring the net advance of 10 per cent noted above for the class of work."

An analysis of the 10 per cent increase offered shows that the average miner's wages would not be increased fully 10 per cent should he return to work, but it is argued that it is better than nothing and that it is a victory.

What impelled the individual operators to call off their revolt was not given out.

Mob and Deputies in Battle. The first shooting affray between deputy sheriffs and strikers in Luzerne county happened near Hollywood. At 6 o'clock p. m. Sheriff Harvey and a force of deputies led by Lattimer with a carload of miners for Harwood. Ten minutes later they were attacked by a crowd of 200 men and women, who hurled sticks and stones at the workmen.

The stories of what followed differ. Sheriff Harvey says he stopped the train when several shots were fired by the strikers and charged the mob with his men. The strikers and women fled at once, hiding in the underbrush to escape arrest. Several miners, the sheriff says, were struck and injured by the missiles thrown by the mob. One striker, it is reported, was wounded, but his name is not known. The strikers say the strain stopped when the deputies saw the crowd. They declare the deputies at once charged a crowd of breaker boys on a neighboring hill, shooting as they advanced. When the strikers had been driven back the deputies returned to the train and the run to Hollywood was completed in safety.

THE WOMEN STONE MINERS.

Armed with Stones They Attack a Body of Non-Strikers.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 6.—Eight Italians, employed on the night shift of the Calvin, Pardee & Co. colliery at Lattimer, were attacked on the public road leading from that place to Hollywood early this morning by twenty-five women who had marched from Milnesville. The women were mostly Hungarians and Italians. They left Milnesville at 4 o'clock, marched through Lattimer, two miles distant, and waited to attack the men working in the Lattimer mine as they passed along the road which leads to their homes at Hollywood.

A few of the women were armed with clubs, but most of them carried stones of all sizes in their aprons. The first non-striking mine worker to leave the colliery were the little band of eight Italians. They saw the women on the road ahead of them, and suspecting an attack, crossed the field in an endeavor to avoid them. The women, however, were on the alert, and they also crossed the field, and, overtaking the men, hurled showers of stones at them. The workmen did not attempt to defend themselves, but ran away, and were soon out of the reach of the fury of the excited women.

One man received a severe cut on the head, while several others were struck by pieces of rocks, but were not seriously injured. The women returned to their homes, satisfied with their demonstration.

There was to have been a march of women and men from McAdoo and Jeansville to Lattimer early this morning, but for some reason it was called off at midnight. It may be made tomorrow morning.

Some of the foreigners are beginning to show an ugly disposition. They are seen in greater numbers on the highways and, as some of them carry clubs, a collision between them and the coal and iron police may occur at almost any time.

BISHOP NINDE IS ILL.

Rock River Conference Presided Over by Dr. Merrill.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Owing to illness, Bishop W. X. Ninde was unable to preside over the Rock River conference today, and he may not recover sufficiently to be able to return during the present session.

There was a second meeting of the new Pastors' Association at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Garfield Park church. Resolutions were considered asking that the bishop reappoint no presiding elder who has been holding this office six years or longer, or who refused to accept a charge before being placed in charge of a district. This will strike three of the presiding elders—Dr. H. G. Jackson of the Chicago district, who has been in this office longer than six years; Dr. F. A. Hardin of the Rockford district, who also has been an incumbent many years, and Dr. G. R. Vanhorne of the Freeport district, who, before succeeding the late Elder T. V. E. Sweet, was not on a charge, living at his home in Rockford.

At 2 o'clock p. m. the anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was held. At 2:30 the second lecture of Bishop Thoburn on "The Outlook for Christianity in the Orient" was delivered, and was followed by an evangelistic service.

The anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society was held. Rev. William Craven, D. D., of the Park Avenue church, was the presiding officer. The addresses were by Rev. W. P. Thirkfield, D. D., and Rev. Dr. Robert McIntyre.

The conference Sunday school association anniversary was held, with Dr. J. M. G. Carter as chairman and an address by Dr. T. B. Neely. The third lecture of Bishop Thoburn followed.

Rev. William A. Burch, pastor of the South Park Avenue M. E. church, has been selected to fill the position of financial agent of Northwestern university, and Robert D. Sheppard, at present financial secretary of the institution, is to succeed to the presidency of the great school, the office having been vacant since the resignation of Henry Wade Rogers some months ago.

Massacre of Ship's Crew.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 6.—The steamer Milwewa has arrived with news of the massacre of the crew of the bark Almond in the South Seas. Captain Robert Lyne, two officers, three white sailors and fifteen natives were butchered by the fierce natives of Los Negros island. The Almond stranded on a coral reef near the island, and the natives in war canoes attacked in such numbers that the Almond's crew was simply overwhelmed. They fought to the last, but all were killed and mutilated. Captain Lyne is reported to have killed himself when he saw further resistance futile. Natives on the Ketch Mayflower got the details of the story.

MR. BRYAN'S WARNING
"If there is anyone who believes that the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."—Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 16, 1890.

SOCIAL LIFE AND THE CHURCH.

The social life of a community is at its best when it is dominated and controlled by the better element of that community. That every community has a good and bad element goes without saying. These elements are not subject to class distinction, and the question of money or the lack of it does not enter into the question. The man who toils for his daily bread, may be, and frequently is, the peer of the man of leisure and luxury so far as character and moral worth are concerned.

The social life of a community means more than the fancy evening party, the afternoon tea, or the card club, and may be helpful, but they are only a part of the many gatherings that contribute to social life. The young man who leaves home in the early evening to seek companionship in the brilliantly lighted saloon, visits the place, not because of his appetite for drink, but because the surroundings are more congenial than the home. He is possessed of a social nature and in satisfying the demands of that nature he seeks a place where a welcome is always assured, and where kindred spirits are never lacking.

The man who visits the lodge room of his favorite society with regularity is prompted usually to spend an evening socially with brother workers. This social nature with which humanity is so universally endowed is capable of wonderful development, and when properly directed possess a great power for good.

The question is suggested "Who shall direct?" Some one has said that the home should be so attractive that the boy or girl would have no desire to leave it for more congenial surroundings, until they are ready to go out into life for themselves.

If every home was an ideal home this might be practical, but the cold fact suggests itself that many homes are simply places in which to eat and sleep, and that many parents lack intimate acquaintance with their own children long before they leave the parental roof.

Some homes are poverty stricken, others are rum stricken and others are blighted by selfishness and a lack of love and adaptability on the part of the father and mother, who simply endure each other. Childhood in such homes develops abnormally, and society takes the product with no feeling of responsibility.

The church long since recognized these home conditions and weaknesses and a great deal of honest effort has been, and is being, expended to supply in the church what the home fails to give.

Young peoples' societies of various kinds are organized, socials, concerts and entertainments are furnished, and every effort is made to make the church attractive and home-like. This good work is not confined to any individual denomination, but is shared by all. Methods may vary, but the aim is the same and is always elevating.

The Congregational church of this city has recently added to its thorough equipment, a social club, which will contribute to the social life of the church and will be helpful to the social life of the city.

Other churches will have similar organizations and in a spirit of friendly rivalry the churches will assume to a greater extent than heretofore the moulding of good society. This is practical Christian work and will receive the commendation of the Master.

The reason that the Irishman gave for voting for Bryan this year, as stated by Mr. Jeffris, in his speech the other night, was a good reason and should be adopted by a good many people who can't tell why they are democrats. He said Mr. Bryan told us four years ago, "Vote for me and you'll have prosperity." I did, and we have had it. So I shall vote for him again.

The Recorder begs the question in its attack upon Mayor Richardson. The residents of Spring Brook were not asking for fire protection, and the Choate-Hollister people were. The principal trouble with the Recorder is, that it belongs to the party of obstruction, whose mission is to "agin the government," on every proposition of progress.

The apple crop of Kansas is 4,000,000 bushels this year. The crop of farm mortgages is unusually light. Grasshoppers and Populists have largely disappeared from the states, and Mrs. Lease is shouting for McKinley.

Ten thousand carloads of grapes, represents the crop of New York, Ohio, and Indiana, which indicates that nature is not very much disturbed in doubtful states.

The exports of the United States for 1900 will exceed those of any other year by over $800,000,000, and yet some people continue to talk about the "robber tariff."

GONE TO BELVIDERE TO SEE ROOSEVELT

A LARGE DELEGATION FROM JANESVILLE ON THE WAY.

Enthusiastic Local Republicans Leave the City on the 1:15 Northwestern Train.—Y. M. C. A. Band and the Janesville Drum Corps Go Along—Some of Those Who Went.

The special train that left Janesville over the Northwestern at 1:15 for Belvidere for the Roosevelt rally was well filled with enthusiastic republicans. The committee in charge of the excursion worked hard to make it a success and was rewarded for its work with a large sale of tickets. While there was not as many sold as anticipated, enough tickets were disposed of to make the affair a success.

The rally today at Belvidere is one of the events of the political season, and it is seldom that the voters of this vicinity have a chance to hear so many celebrated speakers at one time.

The Janesville delegation was headed by the Y. M. C. A. band and the G. A. R. drum corps, and took part in the parade.

The train picked up delegations at the various towns along the line and was well filled as Belvidere was reached. Among the prominent republicans who took advantage of the excursion were:

E. D. Roberts, C. B. Conrad, Geo. Barker, Chas. Curtis, Emory Burdick, J. P. Spoor, Chas. Hemmingsway, C. L. Valentine, C. J. Sloan, W. J. McIntyre, F. L. Clemens, W. O. Newhouse, A. J. Harris, John Stanton, F. H. Farnsworth, J. E. Gleason, J. L. Fletcher, Wallace Cochran, George Jones, T. S. Nolan, W. A. Jackson, Geo. G. Paris, W. F. Willey, Tom Baker.

The special train, consisting of seven coaches, in charge of Engineer F. Kelly, and Conductors Ed. Good and Al. Maloy, pulled out on time. It was to make but one stop for passengers, that at Beloit. The Y. M. C. A. band played a selection at the station, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed. James Gibson, general passenger agent, accompanied the excursion to see that all went well.

CAR OFF THE RACK AT AFTON.

Belvidere Train With Republican Delegation Is Delayed.

Afton, Wis., 2:15 o'clock p. m., Oct. 6.—(Special).—The Janesville delegation, 160 strong, who went by special train at 1:15 o'clock on the C. M. & St. P. Ry., are very liable to miss seeing Gov. Roosevelt at Belvidere on account of the derailing of a freight car on train No. 76 in the cut about one mile east of Afton.

The accident occurred in about the same place that the seven cars of coal were piled up yesterday.

Wrecking crews have been called to the scene and unless the track can be cleared within an hour the chances are that Belvidere will not be reached by the Janesville Republicans until the Roosevelt speech is over.

The Y. M. C. A. band is serenading the people of Afton and most of the delegation are nervously pacing the depot platform, wishing they were in some other place.

WILL NOT LEAVE MILWAUKEE.

McAlpine Engraving Company Will Not Go to Janesville.

It is reported in Janesville that there is a likelihood that the McAlpine Engraving company will remove from Milwaukee and locate in Janesville. A member of the McAlpine company said last evening that such was not the case. The company will remain in Milwaukee, he said, where it is established and is doing a good business. He said a proposition had been received from a Janesville man pointing out the advantages of locating there, but that the business would be continued in Milwaukee. The McAlpine Engraving company employs ten workmen.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

SUICIDE OF BUNDY AT PORTAGE, WIS

He Was the Man That Shot Isaac Saxton at Darien Some Two Years Ago.

Joseph Bundy, who will be remembered as the man who shot Isaac Saxton at Darien, some two years ago, committed suicide at Portage, Wis., about a month ago by shooting. His body was brought to Darien and buried on Thursday last.

The shooting of Saxton by Bundy raised quite a sensation at the time, both men being prominent in Darien and well known in this city. Saxton did not die from the effects of his wounds and Bundy was acquitted after a sensational trial at Elkhorn.

Bundy spent most of his money in his defense and after he was acquitted, became a hard drinker. He was around this city up to a short time ago. Saxton moved to California after he recovered from the effects of his injuries and still resides there.

ON THE MYSTERY OF THE WOMAN'S SKULL

Police Are Now Busily Engaged on Various Clues in the Cedar Lake Sensation.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Progress in the in-shore search of Cedar Lake now being made for light on the mystery of the woman's skull found in its waters has led to the drawing of some attention to the ruins of the Lake View hotel, formerly known as the Von Borsel place, which was destroyed by fire two months ago.

The place has long been abandoned as a resort, but it was made a headquarters by gangs that came from Chicago and other points.

A search of the ruins will be made to see if anything can be found that will cast any light on the mystery. The ruin of the hotel is on the west shore of the lake, across from where the skull was found, and in the general direction in which the divers are now working.

It is hinted that strange deeds were done in the deserted hotel before fire destroyed it.

Two substantial bits of evidence to a most heinous crime were brought up by the divers late yesterday. These were pieces of bone and a rock, which was found near where the trunkless head was fished from the water.

The rock which was brought to the surface by Diver Gunderson on his third tour of the lake mud weighs about ten pounds and is of limestone formation.

It is a rock wholly foreign to the substrata found around Cedar Lake and was evidently carried to the water from a distant locality. More than this, the rock bears evidence of having been hammered out to fit a rope. Sheriff Lawrence is earnestly trying to locate the dentist who made the silver plate found in the mouth of the woman's trunkless head.

Detective Frank Stibbe of Chief Coleman's force, is directing his energies to find the man who drove the strange young man and woman from Crown Point to the lake on that April afternoon two years past, and also the man who leased the boat to the strange couple for a ride on the lake.

The pieces of bone found in the lake by Diver Gunderson are in the hands of expert anatomists, who will soon report their conclusions on them.

These are the salient features which the officials hope to link together and finally unravel the mystery that now confounds them.

Sensational Gold Find.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 6.—A newspaper received here today from Sydney, N. S. W., says a sensational gold discovery has been made at Long Flat, near Gundalgal, N. S. W. Pieces of gold covered with oxide or iron have been found, many pieces weighing up to three-quarters of a pound troy. Fully 2,000 ounces were obtained. Half a prospecting dish of fine dirt taken out of a chute panned out about 25 ounces of gold.

Gold still shows quite as good in the Roof Drive, there being, apparently, a seam of almost pure gold.

Breaks Battleship Record.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 6.—It was a record-breaking trip the new battleship Wisconsin made from Seattle to this city. KILLS SELF AND CHILDREN.

Wholesale Tragedy in a Well-to-Do Family.

WIFE'S HOMICIDAL MANIA

Results in the Shooting of Herself and Her Three Children—Leaves Letter Saying She Felt a Murderous Impulse Coming On Her.

New York, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Lillian Smith, wife of Walter M. Smith, a wealthy grocer living at Broadway and Dykman street, near Inwood, shot herself and her three children. She and her son, Theodore, 8 years old, were dead when found in the house. Mabel, 3 years old, and Ethel, 12 years old, were unconscious and were taken to the Fordham hospital, where Mabel died soon afterwards. Ethel will probably recover. Homicidal mania, suddenly developed, is the only explanation offered. The husband and father was so overcome by the tragedy that he was prostrated and was under the care of a physician. He refused to leave the house, where the bodies of his wife and little son awaited the coroner.

Attention was first called to the shooting when Mary Moore, Mrs. Smith's maid, excitedly hailed a policeman who was passing. He hurriedly investigated and then summoned an ambulance. Mrs. Smith was found with a revolver still in her hands. Two cartridges remained in the weapon, showing that she had reloaded it after firing five shots, as eight bullets were fired in all. Two of these bullets had penetrated little Mabel's body. One bullet had sufficed to kill herself and one her son. There was one bullet in Ethel's breast, which the surgeons at the hospital extracted. The marks of three other bullets were found in the walls of the bedroom in which the girls had been shot. On a table in this bedroom the police found three letters and a sheet of paper. The letters were addressed to the woman's husband, father, and mother. On the sheet of paper, which was held in place by an inkstand, was the following message:

"Dear Walter: I am sorry for what I have done, and I beg that you will pardon me. I have felt this impulse coming on for a long time to end a life of misery. I wanted to end the anguish and take my children with me. You have always been good to me. Good by."

Mr. Smith, who is connected with the wholesale firm of Austin Nichols & Co., said he could not account for the act of his wife unless it was sudden mania caused by ill health. They had always lived happily.

Diphtheria at Rose Hill. Springfield, Ill., Oct. 6.—Dr. C. S. Nelson, special inspector of the state board of health, and M. M. Hill, expert bacteriologist, who were sent to Rose Hill, Jasper county, to make a detailed examination of the alleged epidemic of diphtheria at that place, made a report, revealing startling facts. There were 100 cases and thirty deaths. There was no quarantine, and the disease spread rapidly. Tests of the blood of patients showed germs of the disease in its worst form. Animals inoculated with the germs died in a few hours. One doctor had pronounced a case of the disease as simply tonsillitis. A rigid quarantine will be established.

Life Saver Fuller Drowns. Jeffersonville, Ind., Oct. 6.—George Fuller, aged 40 years, who had saved twenty-three persons from being dashed to death in the falls of the Ohio, was drowned. He was employed by the government on the work of widening the channel and fell from a boat, striking his head on a rock, rendering him unconscious. Fuller had always lived on the embankment overlooking the falls and the night was never too dark or stormy for him to refuse to respond to a cry for help. With his brother, Hiram Fuller, he had assisted in saving more than 100 lives.

New President Is Chosen. Evanston, Ill., Oct. 6.—Dr. Robert D. Sheppard has been chosen president of the Northwestern university. His position as financial agent is to be filled by the Rev. WHY MRS. PINKHAM

Is Able to Help Sick Women When Doctors Fail.

How gladly would men fly to woman's aid did they but understand a woman's feelings, trials, sensibilities, and peculiar organic disturbances. Those things are known only to women, and the aid a man would give is not at his command. To treat a case properly it is necessary to know all about it, and full information, many times, cannot be given by a woman to her family physician.

Mrs. G. H. CHAPPELL.

alcian. She cannot bring herself to tell everything, and the physician is at a constant disadvantage. This is why, for the past twenty-five years, thousands of women have been confiding their troubles to Mrs. Pinkham, and whose advice has brought happiness and health to countless women in the United States. Mrs. Chappell, of Grant Park, Ill., whose portrait we publish, advises all suffering women to seek Mrs. Pinkham's advice and use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as they cured her of inflammation of the ovaries and womb; she, therefore, speaks from knowledge, and her experience ought to give others confidence. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is absolutely free.

TRY TO FORCE NAVAL BATTLE.

Chinese Fleet Attempts to Engage Russian Ship.

FRANCE ISSUES A NEW NOTE.

Fixes a Basis for Peace Negotiations—Punishment of Principal Culprits to Be Designated—De Giers and East Li Consult.

London, Oct. 6.—It is reported in St. Petersburg, according to the correspondent of the Times at the Russian capital, that the Chinese fleet in Formosa strait attempted to engage the Russian armored cruiser Rurik, but the latter's speed frustrated the plan. The correspondent says it is probable the allied squadrons will force the Chinese fleet to capitulate or will destroy it.

The Times' representative at Shanghai says: "It is believed here that highly inflammatory edicts are being issued secretly and that the recent public edicts are only intended to hoodwink the powers."

Fix Basis of Negotiations.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The following official note was issued:

The foreign minister has instructed the representatives of France to sound the powers whose troops are co-operating with ours in the extreme east regarding the adoption of a common program for the negotiations with China. Our representatives acquitted themselves of this mission and left with the various foreign ministers a copy of the following note:

"In sending their forces to China the powers proposed, first of all, to deliver their legations. Thanks to their union and the valor of their troops, this aim has been attained. It is now a question of securing from the Chinese government, which has given Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang full powers to negotiate and treat in its name, suitable reparation for the past and serious guarantees for the future. Penetrated with the spirit which inspired the previous declarations of the different governments, the government of the republic believes it sums up their real sentiments in the following points, which it submits as a basis for negotiations to be entered upon immediately after the usual verification of the powers:

"1. The punishment of the principal culprits, who will be designated by the representatives of the powers at Peking.

"2. The maintenance of the prohibition of the import of arms.

"3. Equitable indemnities to states, societies and individuals.

"4. The formation of a permanent guard for Peking legations.

"5. The dismantlement of the fortifications.

"6. Military occupation of two or three points on the road from Tientsin to Peking, which would thus be always open to the legations wishing to go to the sea or to forces proceeding to Peking from the sea."

The note closes with the declaration that, presented collectively by the representatives of the powers and supported by the presence of the international troops, it appears impossible to the government of the republic that these conditions, which are so legitimate, would not be accepted by the Chinese government at an early date.

Li Is Probably at Peking.

Tientsin, Oct. 6.—Lt. Hung Chang and M. De Giers, the Russian minister to China, had a long conference, after which it was announced that Li Hung Chang would depart for Peking at once. He will be accompanied by the Russian admiral, a Russian guard and his own bodyguard.

Chinese Troops at Peltachou.

Shanghai, Oct. 6.—A small body of Imperial Chinese troops appeared at Peltachou yesterday. They informed the British garrison that their purpose was to disperse the Boxers, and they were not molested by the British. It is announced that the Germans will winter 8,000 men in Peking. The British are reducing their force in preparation for the winter. One thousand coolies will start for India soon; and the Indian cavalry will probably be withdrawn. The volume of business being done is steadily increasing, especially in the Japanese and American districts.

Will Demand $300,000,000.

Shanghai, Thursday, Oct. 6.—The astonishment of the Chinese was great when they received official notification from the viceroy to the effect that foreign pressure had necessitated the degradation of prominent members of the court. It reported that the allies will demand an indemnity which will aggregate $40,000,000 $200,000,000. The new German cable from Chefoo to Tsintau has been opened.

because it is used externally in cases of the delicate situation of expectant mothers. It is a constant relief, robbing childbirth of its terrors. Internal remedies are dangerous. "Mother's Friend" is a blessing in a bottle. There is nothing like it.
"The mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' at my drug store before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly. All mothers who have used it agree their labor was shorter and less painful."

WINE OF CARDUI
A SURE MEDICINE.
HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.
I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.
MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.
WINE OF CARDUI
It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the female organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

ARMY SUPPLIES.

Agricultural Classes Almost Exclusively Depended Upon for Them.

Farm Products Absolutely Necessary for the Sustenance of Men and Horses.

Rash and False Statements of Bryan Regarding These Matters.

Official Figures Disprove Arguments of the Democratic Leader in His Speeches.

Mr. Bryan, in his speech accepting the populist nomination for president, made on August 23 at Topeka, Kan., departed from the plan followed in his Indianapolis speech accepting the democratic nomination, and discussed all the issues peculiar to the populists. In talking on these questions he made many rash and false statements in regard to certain conditions which he declared to exist. In his speech to the farmers he laid especial stress upon the fact that they were not benefited by the republican prosperity, and in speaking of militarism and imperialism and their effect upon the farmers, he said:

"Looking at questions from the standpoint of the producer of wealth, rather than from the standpoint of the speculator, the populist recognizes in militarism a constant and increasing burden. The army worm, which occasionally destroys a field of wheat, is not nearly so dangerous an enemy to the farmer as a large standing army, which invades every field of industry and which costs the country every year $100,000,000 men are withdrawn from the ranks of the producers, and placed as a burden on the backs of those who remain. It means longer hours, harder work and greater sacrifices for those who toil. The farmer, while he pays more than his share of the expenses of the army, has no part in army contracts or in developing companies, and his sons are less likely to fill life positions in the army than the sons of those who, by reason of wealth or political prominence, exert influence at Washington."

This statement, especially as to the farmer and his relation to the army, is so far from the truth, and is so easily disproved, that it excites suspicion. In the first place, Mr. Bryan must know that the law provides that all army contracts must be advertised for, and bids opened, before they are awarded, and that no special class is favored in giving them out.

Figures showing the expenditures by the quartermaster's department from April, 1898, to and including June, 1900, make it plain that nearly $50,000,000 has been expended by the United States for the purchase of supplies and materials for the army which have been produced by the farmers. So that when Mr. Bryan says that the farmer, while "he pays more than his share of the expenses of the army," has no part in army contracts or in developing companies, he states what is untrue.

Official figures of expenditures in the subsistence department of the war department show that in the purchase of American products during the years 1898, 1899 and to June 30, 1900, the articles purchased for rations were mainly direct products of the farm, such as beef, bacon, flour, cornmeal, beans, rice, potatoes, canned tomatoes, molasses, soap, pork, hard bread, peas, hominy, onions, sugar, vinegar, pepper and candles, and during that period the subsistence department expended $33,147,617.63 for these rations. So much for the subsistence department.

The quartermaster's department shows, on account of purchase of forage, fuel, stationery, cavalry and artillery horses, wagons and means of transportation (other than railroads, boats, etc.), harness, clothing and equipment, materials and manufactures and lumber, from April, 1898, to June 30, 1900, that $48,803,036.30 has been expended.

Of this forage, oats, hay, straw, etc., come direct from the farmer. Horses and mules, as well as the lumber purchased, were American products, while the many millions of dollars expended for clothing, equipment and material, represent wool and cotton grown by farmers in the United States. Instead of the farmer having as dangerous an enemy in a large standing army as he has in the army worm, figures from the war department thus show that he has been greatly aided and helped by the army, and has had a market for his products.

To show exactly the amount of money expended by the quartermaster's and subsistence departments of the war department, the following official figures are given in answer to Mr. Bryan's charges that the army has not helped the farmer, but has been a menace:

The subsistence department, during the two and a half years, has expended for American farm products, for rations for the army, $33,147,617.63.

The quartermaster's department has expended during the same period on account of purchase of forage, fuel, horses, clothing, etc.:

Forage (oats, hay, straw, etc.)... $6,052,015 10
Fuel (wood and coal), stationery, stoves and grilles... 2,771,105 26

ONE CERTAINTY

Some Janesville People Fully Realize It Now.

When the back aches from kidney ills, when urinary troubles annoy you, there's a certain way to find relief—a sure way to be cured. Doan's Kidney Pills will do it. Janesville people endorse this claim

Mr. H. W. Rodgers, carpenter, of 210 South Main street, says:—"My wife had kidney complaint and rheumatism for five years, suffering a great deal from pain across the loins. Doan's Kidney Pills, sold by the People's Drug Co., brought much longer for and gratifying results. At first there was no visible change and she came to the conclusion that they were like all other remedies she had tried, but finally the aching and the distress in the small of her back disappeared."

HEROISM AT TIEN-TSIN.

Thrilling Times For Americans Described by Returned Soldiers.

Many of the members of the Ninth infantry regiment wounded at Tien-tsin who arrived at San Francisco in the transport Thomas tell interesting stories of their experience, says the New York Herald.

First Sergeant Bickhart of Company H, Ninth infantry, lay all day on the muddy plain before Tien-tsin with a bullet through both lungs. Many of his comrades thought him dead, but he still lives and has a good chance for recovery at the Presidio hospital. From his position he witnessed all the thrilling events of the day—the death of Colonel Liscum, the effort of Lieutenant Lawton to obtain re-enforcements and the defense of Tien-tsin.

"It was about 11 o'clock in the forenoon," said Bickhart, "when I found myself on my back and unable to move. When Colonel Liscum fell, I was surveying that part of the field. He was in an exposed place. Several men sprang forward and dragged him into the ditch, and Major Lee went forward at once to take his place.

"I watched Lieutenant Lawton go across the field. He had been sitting about from one company to another for some time when he started for the arsenal. He walked right out on the open plain as calmly as if on dress parade. His face was white, but he did not falter. The bullets commenced to fly all around him, kicking up the dirt until the field looked like a puddle in a shower of rain. It must have been two hours later when I saw him coming back across the field carrying two boxes of ammunition. Just as he reached the first ditch he was hit.

"If we hadn't run out of ammunition so early in the day, it might have turned out differently. When Lawton started for help, most of the boys did not have more than two or three rounds left, and they had to save them, because we feared a charge."

Private R. H. Von Schlick of Company C is one of the men recommended for bravery in action. He was shot twice while carrying a wounded comrade to the rear and was hit as often again while lying wounded on the field. Von Schlick is now convalescent, but his left arm is paralyzed, and he may never regain the use of it.

"I only did what I was ordered to do," said the hero modestly.

Captain E. V. Bookmiller of Company A, in speaking of the fighting qualities of the Chinese, said: "So long as they can fight behind fortifications or breastworks they do well and aim accurately, but if you put them in the open to contend with American troops the Yankies can walk over them at odds of five to one. They have not that necessary quality of the soldier known as heart."

"The Japanese were the best comrades we met among the foreign troops," said Corporal Arnold Pearson of Company A, who came home with a piece of shrapnel in his leg. "They have the highest regard for the Americans and will do anything in the world for them. I have seen a Jap give to one of our boys the last drop of water in his canteen and insist upon it."

ESCAPED FROM PEKING.

New Yorker's Thrilling Experience, Says Boxers Fear Americans Most.

Edwin Grifton of New York, who has represented an American concern in China about ten years, passed through Minneapolis recently en route from Peking to New York. He was in Peking at the time of the siege, says the Philadelphia Press. With others, he says, he escaped by means of an old underground passage to a shack without the city walls.

"The passageway through which we escaped," said Mr. Grifton, "led from one of the altars in the temple. I could not say how many days we were going through that passageway, with its innumerable doors. Our food was about gone when on the third day we came to an iron door fastened with enormous bolts. We had a hard time in breaking the door. After traveling perhaps a mile further we were made joyful by seeing signs of life."

Speaking of the situation in China as indicated by the latest information, Mr. Grifton said:

"I think it will be a long time before any substantial peace negotiations can be arrived at, because of lack of co-operation on the part of the powers. The American soldiers are making a fine showing in the orient. They are without question respected to a greater extent and more feared by the Boxers than all the others combined."
